The intent of this document is to provide you with general information regarding the status of, and/or potential concerns related to, your current employee benefits environment. ## Medical Benefits

Administered by Anthem or Kaiser

We realize that nothing is more important than the health of you and your family. That is why EFI offers you a variety of health plans to help meet the needs of you and your family.

Every year, EFI evaluates our medical plan options, plan designs and employee premium contributions to confirm they align with the market and the needs of our employees.

Anthem plans and the Kaiser HMO also provide access to Telehealth services. Telehealth provides an on-demand 24/7/365 access to non-urgent health care through a national network of licensed board-certified US-based doctors and pediatricians. Many use Telehealth for conditions such as cold and flu, fever, headache, pink eye, rashes, sinus infections, ear infections, sore throats, etc. Telehealth services for Anthem members will be provided by Live Health Online.

Anthem/CarelonRx as our prescription drug vendor offers additional benefits through their Rx90 with Optional Home Delivery program.

With CarelonRx Mail program, members will receive their maintenance medicine at their home, safely and securely.

With Optional Home Delivery, members may choose to use CarelonRx Mail (voluntary program) to fill prescriptions for maintenance medicines. Members may choose between CarelonRx Mail order or any in-network retail pharmacy to fill their maintenance medication.

With CarelonRx's Retail 90 program, members may pick up a 90-day supply of medication, instead of a 30-day supply at a participating network of retail pharmacies.

Retail Health Clinics

You can get quick, convenient access to quality medical care at a lower cost than using an Urgent Care Center. A retail health clinic nurse practitioner or physician assistant can treat you for a range of minor illnesses and provide routine vaccinations. You can find such clinics in major pharmacies or retail stores. To find a convenience care clinic near you, go to www.anthem.com/nh/employer or call the toll-free number on your Anthem ID card.

For 2025, the following medical plans are available:

- All employees have the option of:
  - > Anthem PPO 1000
  - > Anthem PPO 2000
  - > Anthem PPO with Health Savings Account
  - Anthem/Carelon Rx is the prescription drug vendor for all Blue Shield plans
- California Employees also have the option of the Kaiser HMO Plan

Medical Opt Out

If you are covered under your spouse's or partner's plan, or you do not want to be covered under the EFI medical plan, you may opt out of EFI's medical coverage.

There are no payments from EFI for opting out of medical coverage. You may opt out of medical but still elect to enroll in dental and/or vision.

NOTE: See page 8 for important information about the Spousal Surcharge if you plan to cover a spouse or domestic partner in one of the EFI medical plans.

Health Savings Account (HSA)

Benefits of being enrolled in the Anthem PPO with an HSA

The Anthem PPO with Health Savings Account plan is a high deductible medical plan that includes a Health Savings Account. With the exception of preventive care services, you pay 100% for all covered medical and drug services until you meet the annual deductible. Once the deductible is met, you will pay 30% of covered in-network services (or the applicable prescription drug co-pays) until you reach the out-of-pocket limit. If you enroll in the PPO with Health Savings Account, you may contribute to a Health Savings Account, and you will receive a contribution from EFI toward your Health Savings Account. This Plan also has the lowest employee premium contributions of the plans that are offered.

An HSA Offers Triple Tax Savings

- Contributions to your HSA are tax-free and lower your taxable income.
- If you are able to invest your HSA, the interest earnings are not taxed.
- You can use your HSA to pay for eligible medical expenses, and you won't be taxed on that withdrawal

Your Money, Your Decisions

With an HSA-qualified plan, you're the one in control. You have the power to make smarter health care choices. Did you know an MRI of the spine can range from under $500 to over $1,000, depending on the provider? If you have any out-of-pocket costs, you can save significantly by taking a few minutes to find quality, affordable providers.

Use Your HSA Now ... or Save it for Retirement

Your HSA is designed to help you pay for medical expenses now, or you can choose to save it in a tax-free savings account to pay for future qualified health care expenses. Annual Contribution maximums are set by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). If you are over 55, you can make additional "catch up contributions" up to $1,000 to help increase your HSA balance. Your account balance rolls over year after year and continues to grow with your contributions.

Pay for the Care You Need

Use the money in your HSA to pay for eligible medical expenses such as:

- Doctor's visits
- Dental work
- Prescriptions
- Acupuncture
- Diagnostic tests

This is just a small list of the medical expenses you can pay for with your HSA. You can find a full list at https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p969.pdf

Consider the benefits of a health savings account (HSA) or flexible spending account (FSA). By contributing to these accounts, you lower your taxable income, reducing the amount you pay in taxes each year. The money in these accounts can be used to pay for eligible medical, dental and vision expenses.

An HSA rolls over from year to year, letting the funds accumulate all the way into retirement. Your account stays with you even if you change jobs. An FSA may not roll over, so you should only contribute what you will spend each year.

Comparing Your Medical Benefit Options

To help you choose the right plan for you, consider the monthly premium, number of times you go to the doctor each year, any planned procedures you have in the upcoming year, any prescriptions you take, as well as the plan's deductible, coinsurance and out-of-pocket maximum.

Anthem PPO 1000 and 2000

These PPO plans cover In-Network and Out-of-Network services with standard copays or deductible/ coinsurance. The familiar design allows you and your family to see providers inside or outside of the network with a mid-range premium cost.

Anthem PPO with Health Savings Account

This Qualified High Deductible Health Plan with a Health Savings Account would provide coverage for In-Network and Out-of-Network services. While having the lowest premium costs, it has larger initial out-of-pocket costs because most charges are applied to the high deductible before coinsurance/copays begin. EFI contributes to a Health Savings Account, and you can use this money towards out-of-pocket costs.

You may want to consider putting some of the money you save on monthly premiums into an HSA, so that you have a balance to pull from when you have a doctor's visit or an unplanned medical need.

Helpful Terms to Know

If you are trying to decide which health care plan from which to choose, make sure you understand the deductible, out-of-pocket max and copayment limits in order to make an educated comparison.

Copay – A flat fee you pay for covered services, such as doctor visits.

Deductible – The amount you pay each year before your plan starts to pay.

Out-of-Pocket Maximum – The most you have to pay out-of-pocket each year for health care services.

Premium – The amount you pay per paycheck to enroll in the health plan.

Preventive Services

All plans cover in-network preventive services at 100%. Deductibles, Co-insurance and Copays are not applied to preventive services.

Tax Savings Considerations

The greatest tax savings opportunities are with the Anthem PPO with Health Savings Account. In addition to EFI's contribution, employees can place funds into the Health Savings Account (up to $4,300 for single or $8,550 for family) for current tax savings on your contributions, earn interest without tax, and future tax savings on any remaining funds that you save for use in a later year or for retirement. Additional tax savings in the current year are available by enrolling in a Limited Purpose FSA.

Tax savings for the current year is available through the Anthem PPO 1000 and PPO 2000 plan and the Kaiser HMO plan by pairing the medical plan with a Health Flexible Spending Account for current year tax savings. Funds do not provide future tax savings and are forfeited if not used by the end of the grace period of the following year.

Medical Benefits

Spousal Surcharge

Additional medical plan monthly charge may apply for Working Spouse/Domestic Partner Coverage

As have many other employers, EFI has updated contributions for coverage under the medical plans to recognize that working spouses/domestic partners may have coverage available from their employers.

To keep monthly payments as low as possible for EFI participants, a monthly surcharge ($350) is added to your premium contribution if your spouse or domestic partner joins one of the EFI medical plans despite being eligible for coverage at his/her own employer.

If your spouse or domestic partner has coverage at his/her employer, make sure you (and your spouse or domestic partner) evaluate your employment-based sources of coverage, and their costs, as you prepare to enroll in EFI Benefits.

IMPORTANT: If your spouse/domestic partner does not work, or if he/she does work but is not eligible for a medical plan through his/her employer, you must make a specific plan coverage election to avoid the Spousal Surcharge.

Your Benefits Action Enrollment Plan – Tips for Success

Evaluate

- Read all of your benefits communications carefully
- Consider your EFI benefit options and your benefit needs and discuss this with your family, if applicable
- Determine if:
  - You have other coverage options, including those available through your spouse/domestic partner
  - Your spouse/domestic partner has access to medical coverage through his or her own employer and decide if it is more cost-effective for your spouse/domestic partner, and possibly your children, to enroll in your spouse's employer's plan.
- Decide how much you will contribute to the:
  - Health Savings Account (HSA), which is available if you have enrolled in the Anthem PPO with HSA medical plan
  - Flexible Savings Accounts (FSA)
    - > Health Care FSA
    - Limited Purpose Health FSA you may elect this FSA if you are not eligible for the Health Care FSA because you have enrolled in the Anthem PPO with HSA medical plan
    - Dependent Care FSA if it is the right choice for your family's dependent day care needs

Act

- Use the tools and resources available on the EFI Employee Corner as you learn more about your benefit options, so you can make the most of them
- Make sure to have available the birthdates and Social Security Numbers for dependents you will enroll in EFI benefit coverage and/or designate as beneficiaries for your coverage.
- Understand how the spousal surcharge works and if it applies to you.

Enroll

 To enroll in EFI benefits, please complete your enrollment through the EFI employee self-service portal.
 You must enroll within 30 days of your hire date.

Dental Benefits

Administered by Anthem

For 2025, you may elect the Anthem Premium Dental Plan which uses the Dental Complete network. Because preventive care is so important, the plan covers these services in full with no deductible or copay. If you choose to visit a non-network provider, your out-of-pocket costs may be higher.

Vision Benefits Administered by Anthem

You have two vision plan options to choose through Anthem. Each includes benefits for eye exams, eyeglasses, and contact lenses. You may visit a provider within the Anthem Network and take advantage of higher benefits coverage or visit an out-of-network provider of your choice for a reduced benefit. If you choose to go out-of-network, you will need to pay the provider directly and then submit a claim to Anthem for reimbursement based on a reimbursement schedule.

Spending Accounts

Flexible Spending Accounts

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs) are tax-saving ways to pay health care and dependent care expenses that you would typically pay out-of-pocket. Expenses such as medical, dental and vision deductibles and copays can quickly add up, and dependent day care or elder care expenses can be even more expensive. FSAs allow you to pay these expenses with pretax dollars, so you save money by reducing your taxable income.

EFI offers you three types of FSA's: Health Care FSA, Dependent Care FSA and the Limited Purpose Health FSA.

To participate in an FSA, you must enroll in the applicable FSA during an open enrollment period or within 30 days of your hire and elect your annual contribution. Your contributions will be deducted from your paycheck on a pretax basis in equal installments throughout the year and deposited into your account(s).

For 2025, you may contribute up to $3,300 to the Health Care FSA and $5,000 to the Dependent Care FSA annually. Both accounts function separately. When you have eligible expenses, you submit a claim for reimbursement from your FSAs.

If you are enrolled in the PPO with HSA medical plan, you may only enroll in the Limited Purpose FSA and you may contribute up to $3,300 annually. The Limited Purpose FSA allows you to be reimbursed for dental and vision expenses as well as the co-pays and co-insurance amounts you incur after you have met the high deductible in the PPO with HSA plan.

Any unused funds left in your health, Limited Purpose or dependent care account at the end of the plan year or grace period will be forfeited. If you are unable to estimate your health care and dependent care costs accurately, it is better to be conservative and underestimate rather than overestimate your expenses.

Health Savings Account

Employees who enroll in the Anthem PPO with Health Savings Account Plan are eligible to contribute to a Health Savings Account (HSA). The HSA is a tax-advantaged account designed to help you save for current and future health care expenses. The current participants enrolled in the PPO with HSA will receive $250 for employee only coverage and $500 for family coverage from EFI toward your Health Savings Account (HSA). For new hires, EFI contributions will be pro-rated based on the month of your hire.

HSA contributions may be deducted from your paycheck on a pretax basis and are subject to annual IRS limits. Funds contributed to your HSA accumulate tax-free, roll over from year to year and are not subject to the use it or lose it rules that apply to traditional flexible spending accounts.

Distributions from your HSA are tax-free as long as they are used to pay for eligible health care expenses. You will be responsible for income taxes and penalties on withdrawals used to pay for non-health care related expenses. A list of eligible health care expenses can be found in IRS Publication 502 accessible at www.irs.gov/pub. (Search "Publication 502").

For 2025, the maximum contribution to your HSA is as follows

Individual Coverage: $4,300

Family Coverage: $8,550

Time Off

At EFI, we recognize the hard work and your contributions that make us successful. To be at our best, we know it is essential to take time off for rest, relaxation and rejuvenation. EFI offers the following programs to support this belief.

Vacation - Non-Exempt

All regular non-exempt (hourly) full-time employees are eligible to take 13 days of vacation per year during their first three years of service with EFI, 18 days per year during their fourth through sixth year, and 20 days during their seventh year and each year thereafter.

Eligible part-time employees have vacation accrual prorated based on their standard work schedule.

Flex Time Off - Exempt

The Flex Time Off program allows exempt (salaried) employees to take responsibility to manage their own time off and collaborate and communicate with their managers and groups to support one another with workload. Instead of accruing and tracking vacation time, you will plan the time you would like to take off with your manager. Flex Time Off is not accrued or earned, and there is no payout of time off when an employee terminates employment. Flex Time Off employees also follow the rules and requirements under the disability, maternity, FMLA and other leave policies of EFI.

Holidays

EFI observes 12 holidays per year (1 day of your choosing).

Company Time Off (CTO)

EFI designates four CTO or "shut down" days when most employees are away from work and able to recharge. For exempt employees, these are considered designated vacation days. For non-exempt (hourly) employees, these days may be taken as vacation or as unpaid days. These CTO days apply to all EFI employees and may change from year to year.

EFI Special Programs

We appreciate the individual needs of our employees and so we offer varying employee programs that recognize these.

Patent Bonus

EFI encourages creativity and ingenuity by supporting employees who pursue patents for their ideas by paying a bonus at the time the patent is recognized.

Talent Ambassador Program

EFI knows that it is our current employees who can best help us find the skilled employees we need for future positions. As a result, EFI rewards employees who have filled a position through their referral. For each qualified referral, you will receive a $3,000 cash bonus (less taxes) for a salaried position and $1,000 (less taxes) for an hourly position.
